

Massive Open Online Course on decent work in global supply chains

What are the challenges and opportunities for achieving decent work in global supply chains? How do transnational corporations and their global supply chains operate? How can they be more effectively governed?

Global Supply Chains, controlled by transnational corporations, determine the 'rules of the game' in today's global economy. Decent Work gaps are widespread in these often highly profitable production networks.

This multi-disciplinary online course is led by Prof Mark Anner who is one of the most knowledgeable researchers on labour conditions in the global garment industry. It discusses the challenges and chances of achieving rights at work and better working conditions in global supply chains, combining expertise from the world of work with cutting-edge academic research. Looking at the economic, the governance and the labour rights dimension of supply chains, this online course is designed to develop both knowledge and practical skills for organizing workers in global supply chains and engaging in policy processes to advance decent work in global supply chains.

Watch the course trailer here: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Uq\_uCqHomM0

When?	The course starts on 12 January 2017 and runs over 8 weeks
Where?	Worldwide, only an internet connection is required
For whom?	Trade unionists and everybody interested in decent work in global supply chains
Costs?	The course is free of charge in the audit track, and costs 49 € in the certificate track

Overview of chapters

- Chapter 1 Introduction to global supply chains
- Chapter 2 The regulatory framework on trade, investment and taxation
- Chapter 3 Global supply chains and development
- Chapter 4 Decent work gaps in global supply chains
- Chapter 5 Key elements of the existing governance framework
- Chapter 6 Negotiated governance – strategies on the company and industry level
- Chapter 7 Regulating global supply chains – strategies on the political and legal level
- Chapter 8 Campaigning to win – strategies and tools

Enrol for free on: <https://iversity.org/en/courses/decent-work-in-global-supply-chains>